ARTICLE VIEWED : Art Omi 2013 International Artists Residency times

Omi International Arts Center is preparing for its 2013 International Artists Residency program and will start accepting applications in November.

Eligibility

Application is open to visual artists from all over the world who have been professionally active for at least the past 3 years. We don't accept applications from currently enrolled students: applicants please show that you are out of school at the time of the application in order to be eligible. Please note: having studied art is NOT a requirement: we accept applications from self-taught professional artists.

Deadline: November 30, 2012 11:59 PM EST

Please read Application Procedure

Fellowships

- Francis Greenburger Fellowship on Mitigating Religious and Ethnic Conflict: Fellowship only for an artist whose work relates to managing and/or mitigating religious and ethnic conflict. Work made at Omi must be in direct relation to this area.
- The Antrev Sponsorship for the Arts: Sponsorship for an artist living and working in Montreal, Canada.
- Prana Studios Award: Sponsorship for an artist living and working in India.
- The Milton and Sally Avery Arts Foundation: Fellowship for a painter living and working in the United States.
- Charlotte Street Foundation: Fellowship for an artist living and working in Kansas City.

When filing your online application form, you will be asked for a 100-word maximum statement about your work.
